

Transporters and Student Boarding 2025/26

Important Information About Transport and Student Boarding Services

- Please note that the transport and boarding service providers listed operate independently and are not employees or official representatives of WMSI.
- The School is not responsible for any fees, schedules, or services offered by these providers. All arrangements—including routes, timings, and payments—should be made directly between parents/guardians and the transport providers.
- Listing a provider does not mean the School endorses or guarantees their services. Any concerns or disputes should be resolved directly between the parent/guardian and the transport and student boarding provider.
